

A Call to Action!

In-person event!

Come Talk About Employment for People with Developmental Disabilities!

On Wednesday, June 25, the Florida Developmental Disabilities Council is meeting to talk about employment for people with developmental disabilities. We'd like you to join us!

This meeting is for you if you are:

- Someone with intellectual and developmental disabilities (or a family member)
- Working in the community (or interested in working in the community)
- A self-advocate who wants to help yourself and others get good jobs

When: Wednesday, June 25, 4 p.m. Eastern

Where: Buena Vista Palace, 1900 E. Buena Vista Drive, Lake Buena Vista, FL 32830

Self-advocates wanted!

A self-advocate is someone who knows what they want in life, and works to achieve those goals. If you want to help yourself and other individuals with disabilities make their own choices, then you are a self-advocate!

It's very important to have self-advocates get involved and share their voice. YOU should help make decisions about services that will affect YOU!

Share your ideas and learn more about employment in Florida!

You'll find out about...

- Employment First (Florida's new rules about helping everyone find good jobs)
- Why you should get involved with Employment First in Florida
- How to be a strong and effective self-advocate
- How to get the best support services to help you find a good job

Hosted by

This event is hosted by the Florida Developmental Disabilities Council and the Institute for Community Inclusion at the University of Massachusetts Boston.
